On!

Don't scatter your dollars unwisely, miles of words, meaningless offerings, availeth nothing. Its real worth, true merit lowest prices that the public want. They always have and always will find them here.

THE LOGAN DRY GOODS CO.

Of Local Interest.

An exchange says this is "Spring Poet" weather.

The small boys are beginning to "turn out" barefooted.

"The dust on the streets is frightful.
And yet some whine that we don't need waterworks."

There was an unusually large crowd in town Saturday afternoon, the merchants being very busy.

Many of those who opposed the street fair were most prominent at every "free exhibition" given by the show people. Wouldn't that jar you?

A Washington doctor insists that strawberries produce mental depression and lead to suicide. We ate some last week, and had worse than "mental depression."

Didn't Dive.

The high diver with the carnival had his trappings all ready, but to get enough water wagons would have to be sent to Dix river, making the expense too great.

Notice.

I have a little unpaid school tax on my books for the year 1902, if not paid in a few days will be advertised as the law requires me to close my books. E.
W. Harris, Treas.

The City Council should make hot haste to plug the gas well. Heaven knows there is enough natural gas in Lancaster now. In fact there's more natural gas than anything else. The Record suggests that the Council trade off that well for some hustlers.

Kirkville Fair.

Mr. Tom Curtis, who was here soliciting for the Kirkville Fair, was very successful, he tells us, in securing handsome subscriptions to the enterprise. Nearly every one approached gave five or ten dollars and promised to help boom the fair.

One good thing about the tents on the Public Square was that it stopped some of the old rattle trap wagons from their racket and dust raising.
There are more old, worn out wagons and buggies dragged around Lancaster than any town in the state. Put a license on them.

Struck Natural Gas.

In boring for water, on Mr. T. Currey's place the driller struck a good flow of natural gas. The gas was ignited and the flame reached high in the air. No steps have yet been taken to look further for gas, but it will doubtless be taken up. If only enough to light the streets could be found, it would save the city a good sum.

Monday is County Court.

Policeman West took up a bunch of 10 or 12 cattle Sunday. There was a black Jersey cow in the lot. He is holding them for the owner.

A bunch of good items from Sugar Creek bore no signature. Will people never learn that communications without the name of author are never printed?

Appropriate closing exercises of the Graded School are being held during the week. A complete summary of the work of the school will be given in next issue.

The Public Square has received a much needed scraping. The dust from the soft limestone rock forms rapidly, and if not promptly scraped away will cause sickness.

Rice Bengie, who brought his "Flying Dutchman" here with the street fair people, left the company here and will probably go to Somerset. It still stands in the court house lot.

To Tobacco Growers.

The Record is asked to announce an important meeting of the tobacco growers at court house Monday, at 2 p. m. The question of joining the Association will be considered, and other matters of importance discussed. If you want to succeed in the tobacco business, come, join in with the others.

Wheat Injured.

Mr. H. A. B. Marksbury, who has been in the grain business in Garrard since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, tells The Record the wheat crop has been very seriously damaged by rust, caused from drouth.
He says he looks for possibly little over a half crop. Other stuff has suffered equally as much.

Delightful Picnic.

The 6th and 7th grade of the Lancaster High School gave a delightful picnic on the school campus Wednesday. These grades compose the department in charge of Miss Amanda Anderson. A committee of handsome little fellows came up and invited the editor and Capt. White to join them, but it was impossible for either to accept.

It Could Be Same Here.

The Cynthia Democrat tells of the arrest and trial of several men who had been seining. They were held to await action by the grand jury. This same thing could be done here, if the proper steps were taken.
Let all the fishermen chip in and make up enough to reward any one getting up sufficient evidence. And then fine every son-of-a-gun, even if some of the "fishermen" are caught with wool in their teeth. Its just as wrong for a "good fellow" to seiln as it is for any one.

Still Digging.

Another well is now being put down on Mr. Curry's lot, and many people believe the effort to find sufficient water will prove successful. As stated in last issue of the Record, no well will be bored deeper than 150 feet, and when water is found enough wells will be made to fill a large lake to be constructed. The land so lies that a lake will not cost much. Push the work gentlemen, the people want water, and the town must have it if she wants to get out of her present snail's pace.

Keep It Up.

On the first day of the street fair,
"Big Injun" Rothwell, the efficient chief of police went to the usual gang who get drunk and kick up a racket, and told them plainly he would have no monkey business. He proved his determination by promptly landing several in jail, consequently there was absolutely no disorder during the rest of the week. The Record congratulates "Injun" for this, and suggests that he keep the good work going. The writer has lived in Lancaster all his life, and last week was the first time he ever saw so many people in town with absolutely no disorder. Even the hoodlums think more of Injun by his faithful performances of duty.
Much praise is due to deputy Will West, who is making one of the best officers the town has ever had.

To Have a Pretty Town.

The Cynthia Democrat tells of an organization there for the improvement of the town's appearance. It is composed of ladies who take great pride in the work, and have brought about much good. For instance, they will offer a prize of $5 for the prettiest bed of flowers, $5 for the handsomest porch or window box, $10 for the prettiest and best-kept front yard, etc. In this way, the people have been brought to realize how easy it is to keep attractive premises, and, having gotten out of the sloven way of most towns, now take great pride in the work. The ladies of Lancaster might organize and begin by offering $5 for the first store found that doesn't sit behind an ash pile, $5 for the first merchant who doesn't sweep his trash in front of his store, $500 for the first tobacco hog who doesn't spit on the pavement, $250 for the first merchant who keeps old boxes and other obstructions off his pavement. Then they might offer suitable prizes for front yards that are kept free from old papers, trash, etc., and a handsome reward for house-es and front fences kept neatly painted and attractive. This could be done but unless the ladies take hold, nothing will ever come of it.

Seph's Right.

Editor Seph Campbell, of the Somerset Journal, gives the following recipe for successfully killing your town: "Oppose improvements; trade some where else; ask two prices for your property; don't subscribe for the home paper but borrow it, criticize everything you are not interested in."

Will Play For Commencement.

Mr. W. J. Homer, of Danville, was here the other day, and very kindly consented to play for the commencement exercises Tuesday evening. Mr.
Homer is one of the best violinists in the south, and those who have heard him are delighted to know that he will be here. The Lancaster orchestra which disbanded on the departure of Mr. T. B. Long, will get together and play with Mr. Homer. We will say in this connection that Mr. Homer will remain in town several days, and those wanting their pianos or organs put in perfect shape by an expert would do well to see him, or leave orders at The Record office.

A High Compliment.

The Nashville College of Law, one of the most widely-known institutions in the United States, each year confers a title upon some worthy educator or jurist in each state. In accordance to this time-honored custom, the dean, William Farr, Ph. D., L. L. D., has notified our townsman, Hon. R. H.
Tomlinson, of his selection as one from Kentucky of ability, morality and integrity, and worthy of the distinction of receiving the degree of Doctor of Laws, LL. D. The college confers this upon only one who proves an honor to himself, an honor to his country and an honor to the college.
The Record congratulates Mr. Tomlin-son, as he richly deserves the distinction.

Can Be Done.

We are of the opinion, in fact we know, every illegitimate business in Montgomery county or any other place, can be suppressed and we further know, it is the business of officials elected or appointed to carry out the dictates of the law, and if they do not, then it becomes the duty of officials higher in authority to inquire why this direct of duty. If these officials fail in their duty to the Commonwealth then it becomes the duty of grand juries to take the matters up and bring them before the courts.
Such steps have been taken at other places and it may be done here. If laws are not respected by those in authority how can we expect obedience from the ignorant and base.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Our List.

We are now going over our mail list, sending out statements to those in arrears. This will make much work, and postage stamps cost money, so don't think we mailed you a statement as a joke. All those more than one year behind will be weeded out, and the lot sold to some one who deals in such business. There are not more than 25 or 30 names of this class. We have the best list in the state, not in numbers, if you please, but in quality, the very best people in this locality taking The Record. Realizing that this is what advertisers want, and that we had better print 1250 papers and send them to people who will pay for them, we don't boast of having "thousands" of names possibly three-fourths of whom will never pay for the paper or anything else. Our lists are always open for inspection by those interested, and we will wager a new hat that there's not a better list in Kentucky, quality considered.

Death of Hon. John Bennett.

Ex-Senator John Bennett, aged about sixty-five, and unmarried, died at Richmond, Thursday, after an illness of some months. He was a successful lawyer and widely esteemed citizen, and possessed of considerable wealth. He served two terms in the State Senate, being elected in '88 and '95, and declined the nomination for United States Senator when Deboe was elected. He was a graduate of Yale, and a man of many accomplishments. He was formerly president of the Farmers' Bank there. He was a brother of Dr. Bennett, president of the National Exchange Bank; Waller Bennett, president of the Madison National Bank; James Bennett, president of the Farmers' Bank; William Bennett and Samuel Bennett, prominent Madison county farmers, and Miss Belle Bennett, founder of the Belle Bennett Institute at Jackson.

Old Remedy Revived.

Those mothers who insist upon their boys wearing heavy, hot shoes during the summer should the following clipped from an exchange: "You never heard of a wild animal that had rheumatism until it reached captivity and was kept off the earth. You never heard of a horse that had rheumatism until it was shod with iron and kept off the earth. You never heard of a dog that had rheumatism until it became a household pet and was pampered—kept off the earth. The heathens of Africa and the Pacific islands never had rheumatism, so far as we know, until they got to wearing sandals or shoes. I once knew a fool man who, whenever he got sick, would dig a trench in his garden, lie down in it and have his wife cover him with fresh earth as far up as his chin. He would remain there for an hour or two, then get up in fine spirits. Mother earth!
The contact! It looked like the resurrection—and it was. Let all the boys go barefooted."

Lancaster Boy Climbing.

Henley Bastin, of this city, was highly honored last week by being appointed assistant professor in telephony at Purdue University. Purdue is one of the largest institutions in the United States, and the selection of Mr. Bastin is indeed an honor, as the place was eagerly sought after by electricians from all over the country.
He will return home for a short rest, and return to his new duties within a few weeks.

Married at Shelby City.

A friend sends The Record the following: Mr. E. W. Smithwick, of Thibe-deaux, La., and Miss Maggie Sandige of this city, were married Thursday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. W. Dunn. Miss Sandige is quite an attractive and fascinating lady, and the groom is to be congratulated upon winning her. He is an elegant gentleman, well worthy of his prize.
The attendants were Mr. Wyatt and Miss Lula Sandige, sister of the bride. The party, and about seventy guests enjoyed a most bountiful repast, and left for a trip to Louisiville, New Orleans and other Southern points.

Towns Liable.

While most everybody enjoyed the street fair, and was glad it came, yet The Record desires to call attention to a recent decision in regard to the town's liability in allowing the streets to be blocked. This not only refers to placing tents on the streets, but also has bearing on the old goods boxes, farm machinery, wagons, buggies, etc., which are allowed to be placed on the streets. In the first place, if any one is injured, he can recover damages, and in the second place, if any old wagon or other obstruction is placed on any public pavement or street, the town can be sued for permitting a nuisance. The Harrodsburg Herald prints the following: In a recent case of the city of Richmond vs. Smith, decided by the Supreme Court of Virginia in January, 1903, the right of the city to permit an obstruction of its streets by a street fair is fully considered and decided. The Richmond Carnival Company was a Virginia corporation, and by its charter was authorized to hold a carnival in the streets of Richmond, Va. The city council granted the right to use the streets to this company, and Smith sued the city for permitting a nuisance.
He recovered a judgment for $500.
On appeal the Supreme Court sustained the judgment. The opinion is an exhaustive one, citing numerous authorities, and fully settles the question that a town granting such rights incurs grave responsibilities. It might be well for towns granting these privileges to consider this opinion.

Garrard Man Nominated.

The Prohibitionists of Kentucky, in convention at Louisville, nominated the following State ticket: Governor, T. B. Demaree, Jessamine; Lieutenant-Governor, O. T. Wallace, Garrard; Secretary of State, Charles Brenard, Franklin; Auditor, R. E. Easton, Henderson; Attorney-General, W. S.
Stone, Wayne; Treasurer, J. A. Barrall, Bullitt; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Miss H. E. Brooks, Hopkins; Commissioner of Agriculture, R.
T. Ammerman, Harrison.

Tobacco Growers.

An agreement is about to be made between the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association and the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company by which the entire output of the Burley tobacco district of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia will be handled in Louisville. The association is an organization of farmers which will buy from the growers at a standard price fixed for five years in advance. The warehouse contract involves the handling of 140,000 hogsheads each year.

A Salty Reply.

One of those up-East journals, the kind that are always slinging mud at Kentucky, telegraphed Gov. Beckham asking what steps the executive would take to break up feuds in Kentucky.
The governor answered as follows:—
"Your telegram to me asking for a statement of my plan about stopping feudal troubles in Kentucky was received. When you succeed in evolving a real good plan for successfully stamping out sin and crime in New York please let me know what it is, and I will try it in Kentucky if it is necessary. J. W. C. Beckham.

Additional Personal Notes.

Capt. Wm. Herndon was in Cincinnati on business the first of the week.

Judge Wm. Shngars is spending a few days with his son, W. K., at Bradfordville.

Misses Marie Joseph and Cora Ward have returned from their school in Tennessee.

Mr. Telephone Bastin attended a meeting of the Telephone Association in Lexington Wednesday.

Mr. G. M. Patterson and family will take rooms at Miss Sallie Tillett's this week, turning over their house to Mr.
A. E. Denny.

Stanford Journal: Mr. Shelby I.
Tribble, after two months work in this office, left Saturday for his home

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Lancaster, Ky. May 22, 1903.

The willingness of Hon. Gus Willson of Louisville, to become the republican candidate for Governor has brought forth many nice remarks about that excellent gentleman. Mr. Willson is a man of the Col. J. W. Caperton type, free from anything that is in the least questionable, is a typical gentleman, firm in his convictions and fearless in the discharge of any duties involved upon him. Saturday, we heard a group of democrats discussing the situation in the state when Mr. Willson's name came up. "There's one of the cleanest and best men in the state," remarked one, a leader in Kentucky politics. "He is a gentleman, a leader among leaders, and a man who will not stoop to any trick or dirty method. When he takes the stump, he will make such a clean-cut argument, and in such a gentlemanly way, that our speakers will be put to the test to answer him. Yes, Mr. Willson is a gentleman, in every sense of the word."

To our exchanges: Please print across your front page, in red ink the edict that positively no one but BONA FIDE editors and publishers will be admitted on the press trip this summer. The railroads are the ones who insist on this, its not the members of the association at all. Its very embarrassing to turn down people at these meetings, but it must be done, or the railroads positively will not issue transportation. "I own the paper up home," or "I write most of the copy for Jones, the editor up home," will not go with the railway people any more. As one of the committee on credentials, we ask the papers to call attention to this fact.

There have been many suggestions as to what should be done to suppress the lawlessness in Breathitt county. The best way out of the trouble, according to our notion, is to abolish the county, divide it back to the counties from whence it was taken. In the mean time, send a special judge and attorney, together with sufficient detectives and soldiers to bring in witnesses and offenders. The judge and attorney should be selected without party favor, have no political pets in the case, as that is too often done, but get men who will do their duty. Stringent steps should be taken at once, as the reputation of the entire State is at stake.

Alongside of its heading, the Louisville Post gives the "Pool Room Directory," together with names of operators and the owners of the property. This surely is rubbing it in on those supposed to execute the law, and its hard to see how they have the face to pay no heed and allow gambling places to flourish right under their nose. But Louisville is no worse than any of our other cities, and we might bring it down to smaller towns, and

OF INTEREST HERE

Timely Words Which Should Interest Some People in Lancaster.

The spirit of gambling is abroad in the land. It is in our homes. It is in our schools. It is in our places of business, as well as in our places of amusement and recreation, says an editorial in the Central Methodist. The poor negroes play their game of chance with well-worn dice. The news boys in the alleys and boot blacks gamble away their hard earned little capital. The clerk in the store, the proprietor, the capitalist even, all stake their money, varying only in amount, on this or that event, the horse race, an athletic contest, professional ball game condition of the wheat market, stocks, etc. They are all in the same spirit.

Intemperance is a thing not difficult to recognize, and its terrible consequences, easily seen and known by all, have aroused the people to their greatest effort to destroy the whisky power in our land. But the spirit of gambling, which is not so easily recognized, or its immediate consequences so repulsive and shocking as those of intemperance, is gradually and insidiously working its way into every part of our social and business life. The consequences, too, in the end will be equally as ruinous as these of any other sinful practice or unholy act. It will deaden all finer moral feeling, sacrificing everything to the love of greed, destroying all spirituality and unfitting a man for any and every form of religious activity. We must be aroused to the dangers that are ahead, or we may suddenly be aroused some day to the fact that we have become a nation of gamblers.

But where shall we begin to check this gaming spirit? Begin where it begins—in the home, in the school, in the social pastimes of the people. The giving of prizes of any kind, in the school or in the home, is accompanied always with the danger of stimulating this very spirit, and not always among those contending for the prizes but certainly among their friends and others interested in the results. The giving of a single prize in school in any one subject is one of the most certain ways we have ever seen of encouraging the spirit of gambling among young people in school. So interschool contests of all kinds, in athletics, oratory, etc., are equally certain to lead to the same results. We know whereof we speak. The guessing at the number of pins in a board, seed in a pumpkin, or votes in a coming election, are all wagers in a disguised form, and lead to the same demoralization of character and willingness to indulge in more open forms of gambling. Nearly all forms of get-rich-quick investments and other schemes of speculation are in the line of gambling, and should be avoided by all who want to be on the safe side.

Let us be on our guard, therefore, against all these insidious phases of the gambling spirit, and let us warn others against them. There is no form of sin, perhaps, that is more common, none more certain to ruin, than this gambling mania. It is said the ancient Romans even bet their lives, offering to sell themselves into slavery on the results of their great games, so strong had this passion for gambling taken hold of them. Beware, lest this Twentieth century finds us following hard after.

Who Buys the Farm?

A glance over the lists of recent sales of country real estate shows that more and more of the good old ancestral farms are passing into the hands of a different class of owners. The names include plenty of such endings as "ski," "ello," "berg," "han," "sen." These people are supplanting the native-bred young men to such an extent as to completely change the make-up of some Eastern communities, says the American Agriculturist.

Their purchase of property is of course not due to any prejudice in their favor on the part of former owners, but to the fact that Jean Catlette or Steve Kalouski, is perhaps, the only buyer willing to pay anything like a fair price. These enterprising persons have worked a few years in a city shop and laid up several hundred dollars. Taught by their experience in overcrowded Europe to prize the ownership of land, they are ready to take a farm on easy terms and work hard to pay for it in full. They do not despise a location which happens to be over five minutes walk from a trolley line or more than ten miles from a city. They expect to work and save with a great deal of help from vigorous, ambitious women folks and their numerous and docile children.

Meanwhile the young man, who would have been natural heir to the farm, has sold his birthright for a job where he can wear creased trousers every day in the week and keep his finger nails white and smooth. With an idle wife and a pug dog he lives in a little flat, of which the monthly rent is equal to the price of an acre of good farm land. He grows hollow-eyed and nervous, and wears out young, but the people with the strange names live and multiply in the ancestral homes.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr T G Merritt, of Mehoopna, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at B E McRoberts. 1 m

WALLACETON.

(Delayed Letter.)

George Mitchell sold a horse to D. S. Dotkins for $9.

Thos. Kinnard and wife were with friends here Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Maggie Wallace, of Berea, was the guest of Misses Sallie and Lucy Cade, Saturday night.

Miss Mary Caldwell, who has been quite poorly for some time, seems somewhat improved at this writing.

J L Sturgell preached to a large crowd here Sunday—the largest that has gathered here for more than a year.

Misses Dovie Kinnard and Ollie Abner, of Berea, attended church here Sunday and were guests of the family of E W Baker.

At the S S election held here last Saturday E W Baker was re-elected Superintendent and Lewis E Baker secretary and treasurer.

Chester Gay, 10 years old, left here a few days ago for his brother's home in California, going through accompanied by no certain one.

Our farmers are now longing for some of the rain that so badly retarded their work a few weeks ago. Some of the ground is so hard that it cannot be broken at present.

MARKSBURY.

Mr Speed Boner, of Boyle, was with friends here, Sunday.

Mr Kinnaird Bourne and wife visited relatives at Bourne, Sunday.

T D Chesnut sold seven shoats to Joe Tuggle at $6.40 per hundred.

Messrs C A Robinson and Ned Bogie have had their residences newly painted.

Mr Cyrus Daly and wife spent Saturday with Mrs Susan Anderson at Lancaster.

Miss Mamie Hawkins, of Danville, was among the visitors at the Fork church, Sunday.

Miss Sue Sutton was the guest a few days last week of Mrs J I Hamilton, at Lancaster.

Mr and Mrs J S Johnson, of Lancaster attended services at the Fork, Sunday, and dined with Mr H D Aldridge and family.

Rev. W H Stallings returned last Tuesday from a pleasant trip to the Southern Baptist Convention, which met at Savannah. Instead of a sermon Sunday morning, Rev. Stallings gave an interesting description of Savannah and the Convention.

We presume the Street Fair and Carnival at Lancaster was much enjoyed by old and young. One neighbor and family who attended Friday night, tell they saw a ghost as they were returning home. We presume they were still thinking of the London Ghost Show.

A Fine Farm For Sale.

On Tuesday, June 2nd, 1903, if not sold privately before that date, the undersigned will offer the well known Fisher and Herring farm for sale, on the premises in Lancaster, Ky., to the highest bidder. The sale is made for the sole purpose of dividing the property. The farm consists of two hundred and sixty acres of highly productive land, partly located within the limits of the city of Lancaster, Ky., with a brick residence and substantial buildings of all kinds necessary to make a home attractive, and comfortable, fronting on Richmond Avenue. The land lies well, is under good fence, and in the highest state of cultivation, yielding abundant crops of hemp, tobacco, corn, wheat, bluegrass, &c. There is no better soil, or more valuable property in Central Kentucky. Terms easy, and made known by the undersigned, who will take pleasure in showing the premises to any one. At any time. The place is well watered. H. C Herring, Mrs. Susan Fisher.

A Little Early Riser now and then, at bedtime will cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles. Dewitt's Little Early Risers are the famous little pills that cure by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectually, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach and liver that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely, and if their use is continued for a few days, there will be no return of the complaint. Sold by F P Frisbie. 1 m

Time spent, in making fruit and vegetables look attractive, is never lost.

GREATLY ALARMED.

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists. 1 m

For setting out in a dry soil, the plant should be well rooted and stocky as it must depend on its own roots.

Remedy.

Mr H P Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S.C., has been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent sizes, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists. 1 m

Women who smoke seem to get as much pleasure out of it as they do trying to balance their check books.

The Dowie "Pledge."

Harry Giovannoli, writing from Washington to the Danville Advocate says: Washington is looking for a visit from the Rev. John Alexander Dowie some time this fall. Dowie, as you may have heard, is going to New York in October, accompanied by two thousand of his followers, half of them women, to convert that wicked city, and it is possible that he may stop in Washington, either going or coming, and give this town a coating or two of whitewash. It needs it—in spots. By the way, if you join the Dowie movement here is the oath or vow you are supposed to take:

I vow in the name of God, my Father, and of Jesus the Christ, His Son and my Saviour, and of the Holy Ghost, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, that I will be a faithful member of Zion Restoration Host, organized at the Shiloh Tabernacle in the city of Zion on Lord's Sept. 1903, and I declare that I recognize John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic church in Zion, of which I am a member, in his threefold prophetic office, as the Messenger of the Covenant, the Prophet foretold by Moses and Elijah the Restorer. I promise to the fullest extent of all my powers to obey all his lawful orders issued by him directly or by his properly appointed officers, and to proceed to any part of the world, wherever he shall direct, as a member of Zion Restoration Host, and that all family ties and obligations, and all relations to all human government shall be held subordinate to this vow, this declaration, and this promise. This I make in the presence of God and of all the visible and invisible witnesses.

Progressive Euchre.

The New York Sun reports the following, which The Record is asked to reproduce:
 Philo B School, secretary of the Brooklyn Sunday School Union, made these remarks recently at the mid-year convention of the King's County Christian Temperance Union:
 "Gambling among the children of our city is life. Our churches and our schools are honey-combed with it—gambling in these progressive euchre parties. Let us save the children. A boy who came to me in trouble confessing that he had stolen $65 from his employer, he told me that he had learned his first lesson in gambling at a progressive euchre party given by his Sunday school teacher."

To a Sun reporter Mr Schofield gave these further reasons for opposing progressive euchre parties:
 "I do not mean that is, Protestant schools or churches, give these euchres, but they are given by members," he said "I know the Catholic churches give them, but I do not know of any Protestant churches that give them."

"But it is Sunday school teachers and prominent society women who are in close touch with all church work that I am aiming at. Why, I know of one very prominent family who left their church because the minister had spoken in objection to progressive euchres. It is gambling pure and simple. The principle is the same whether it is for prize or for money."

"It is time that our clergymen should speak with no uncertain sound to put a stop to this gambling craze that is undermining the churches and demoralizing society in Brooklyn. The children seeing their parents at home with their houses filled with prizes—lamps, vases, chairs, &c., won at a progressive euchre parties see no harm in gambling in the wheels of chance which are to be found in many confectionary stores, at which they win 3 cents worth of candy for 1 cent."
 "The whole spirit of the age seems to be something for nothing. This is one reason why today there is so much crime among the young in Brooklyn and for that matter the country is at large."

Up to the Farmers.

The Burley Tobacco Growers Association's agreement is now being circulated among the farmers in this county, and a large number of acres of tobacco have already been pledged to the association.

Why any farmer should hesitate for a moment to sign this agreement is not plain to us. The association agrees to buy the farmer's tobacco and pay for it as delivered at a price that will be as much as they get now and have as much more. For instance, if a farmer sold his last year's crop at 8 cents the association agrees to pay 12c for this year's crop.

The proposition is just as plain as it can be, and the farmer has everything to gain and nothing to lose. If the association should fail to take his tobacco he loses nothing. He still has his crop and must take whatever price the Continental market may chance to offer.
 If every farmer should join the association, and that is what they are doing practically in every county, the tables would be turned on the trust and it would be at the mercy of the farmers, just where it ought to be. If there is any money to be made in the tobacco business the producer is entitled to it.

We do not see why any farmer should refuse to join his brother farmers in this movement and we believe, after deliberation, they will do so. This is the opportunity of the farmers to control the situation. Will they accept it, or will they reject it.
 Let every farmer take a hand in the movement. Don't stand back and see your neighbors make a success of it, but join hand with them and in a solid phalanx march up against the trust, and show the same independence exhibited by our forefathers.—Dover News.

MANSE.

Mr T R Slavin visited his home folk near Danville last week.

Miss Alice Henderson, of Lancaster, was the guest of Miss Mattie McCormack, Sunday.

A number from here attended the Carnival in your town last week, and reported a good time.

Miss Annie Reid entertained the Manse Glee Club last week in her usual charming manner. Dainty refreshments were served at 10 o'clock, and with such a jolly crowd all had an enjoyable time.

The Manse Glee Club is the "whole show"

Since it has started it is sure to go.
 It's a jolly team and can't be beat.
 With boys so gallant and girls so neat.

It numbers thirty when all are there,
 Of boys and girls so stately and fair.
 The boys' good traits in this we relate And next comes the girls if they can wait.

We'll begin with Oc who is the president.

They gave him this honor without his consent.

There's nothing more attractive than gravitation 'tis said

Except this young man, he's far a head.

And his brother Duke who is nandsome and tall,

He courts every girl, and is loved by all.

Cupid he employs for his service alone, He steals all the hearts but gives not his own.

And then Ed Walker with his transient smile,

Is admired by all who near him doth while.

But is too young yet to choose his bride.

And has many years in which to decide.

Now comes Davy Hurvey who is running the farm,

He always does good and never does harm.

He's up with the sun and is busy all day.

Always smiling and is happy and gay

Now we greet Wm Tudor a stylish "dude"

He's pleasant and "chatty" but not all rude.

He has won the heart of the Belle of Manse,

We can truly say, every one he en-chants.

And too, one of our greatest friends, Is T R S who "hums the might have been"

Manse without him would be a failure no doubt,

Like the play of Hamlet with Hamlet left out.

And then Joe Mc who lives at Manse, And hasn't yet "played the game of chance"

"In the Springtime gentle Annie" is his song,

And we're afraid he won't be single long.

And Wm Doty who is keeping "bach" He makes lots of "dough" and would

Miss Daisy Collier, of Danville, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Ann Hill.

be a great "catch"

He needs a tidy maid to sew his "buttons on"

He'd better decide before they're all gone.

Then comes Dr Walker everybody's friend,

He heals all the sick and has practice without end.

He's a noble man, the pride of the town.

And does much good for miles around.

And Wm Denny too, who makes it more complete,

For a good, honest boy he can't be beat.

He's "E Pluribus Unum" of which we can boast

So strictly with his duties, always found at his post.

Now comes Boyle Doty who is droll and funny,

He stays at home and likes to make money.

The self-sacrificing boy has resigned taking a wife,

Thinks it best to disappoint all for a while than one for life.

And Otty Burke ye fates protect The girls from the irresistible flirt of that sex,

Ye amateur flirt drift slow, "Larger boats may venture more,

But small boats should keep near the shore."

The city that gets to the front usually has a pull as well as a push.
 Heaven hasn't time to help the men who is a victim of that tired feeling.

One day we wear an ulster thick And next day a duster thin—All of which denotes that spring is beginning to begin.

WEAKNESS.

There is a form of weakness to which women are subject which is responsible for much general ill-health and unhappiness; it is known as "female weakness." From this local cause can be traced the slow advance of failing health which not infrequently leaves the woman a chronic invalid.

No woman should allow womanly diseases to progress without proper treatment. The trouble is that these diseases progress, often, because of improper treatment.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can be relied on as a safe and sure cure for womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"My health is the best now that it has been for four years," writes Mrs. Phoebe Morris, of Ira, Cayuga Co., N. Y., Box 52. "I have taken but two bottles of your medicine, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These medicines have done me more good than all that I have taken before. I could do my work only about half the time, and now I can work all the time for a family of four. Before I took your medicines I was sick in bed nearly half the time. My advice to all who are troubled with female weakness is to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery'—the most wonderful medicines in the world."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Keep the bowels healthy by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Pear trees require rather less space than any other fruit trees. Few of them are of a spreading habit, the majority of them growing in a pyramidal form. Still, it is not best to let them to grow too tall. Cut out the tops.

In spite of very heavy cattle receipts prices are fully maintained. The prices of dressed beef are moving up nearer to parity with other meats, and the distribution trade is in good shape. Exporters were also fairly liberal buyers. Quality of cattle now coming in better than for some time past. Receipts at six markets to Friday 148,000 against 128,000 last week and 97,000 last year. Closing quotations at Chicago, Saturday: Choice to extra steers, $5.30 to $5.75; good to choice, $5 to $5.40; fair to good, $4.40 to $5; common to medium, $4 to $4.40; butchers' steers $4 to $4.20.

The total sales of leaf tobacco on the Louisville market January 1 to April 30, 1903, were 53,676 hds, against 78,112 hds, sold during corresponding month of last year. The rejections January 1 to April 30, 1903, were 1,558 hds, against 17,000 hds, rejected during corresponding period of last year. Total receipts January 1 to April 30, 1903, were 41,397 hds, against 57,021 hds, received during corresponding period of last year. Up to the close of April this year we had sold of the 1902 crop 62,578 hds, against 72,281 hds, of 1901 crop sold up to close of April 1902. Of the total sales this year 42,110 hds, were Burley and 3,112 hds, were dark tobacco. A Quick Arrest.

J A Gullede, of Verbena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklin's Arnica Salve quickly arrested further inflammation and cured him. It conquers aches and kills pain. 25c at R E McRoberts, druggist. 1 m

A woman's love can become annoying as well as burdensome.

The Wasteful of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of worn-out tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way, and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by F P Frisbie. 1 m

When a woman gives way to anger she begs her own pardon with tears.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs C D VanMetre of Shepardsville, W. Va., says, "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by R E McRoberts druggist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c, $1.00. 1 m

Notice to Hear Proof on Claims.

Garrard Circuit Court

A J Rice's Adm'r & C's Defts

Pursuant to an order of the Garrard Circuit Court made at its March term 1903, in the above styled case, the undersigned master will hold daily sittings in his office in Lancaster, Garrard County, Ky., to hear proof on claims against the estate of A J Rice, deceased.

These sittings will begin May 5th, 1903 and continue from day to day until the 30th day of May 1903. All persons holding claims against said estate will please present them promptly, properly verified and proven, or they will become barred.

Given under my hand April 23, 1903.

JOHN W. MILLER, Master Com'r. Garrard Circuit Court.

Commissioners Sale of Land.

Sam Preston, Plff.

Franklin Dennis &c. Defts.

and

R E McRoberts Plff

Franklin Dennis Deft.

By virtue of a Judgement of the Garrard Circuit Court rendered at its March Term 1903 in the above consolidated cases, I will on MONDAY, MAY 25, 1903, publicly before the Court House door in Lancaster, Ky., sell to the highest and best bidder the following described property in Garrard County Ky., which is bounded as follows:

Beginning at a black walnut in a branch corner to Jas. Sanders, thence down said branch with its meanders S 34 E 18.5 poles S 23 E 15.1 poles S 18 E 15.3-10 poles S 8 E 20 poles S 2 W 34 poles to Collier E of Sugar Creek with its meanders N 74 W 40.9

Don't Violate the Law

And don't encourage the violation of the law by buying Whisky from those who have no right to sell you whisky.

We Have a Right to Sell you Whisky.

And You Have a Right to Buy it From Us.

READ OUR PROPOSITION:

We will send you one full quart of 10-year-old either Rye or Bourbon Whiskey, nicely packed in plain box, for $1.00; two quarts for $2.00, or four quarts for $4.00 and we will pay all express charges. It will cost you just 3 cents to send us either one or two dollars and 5 cents to send us three dollars via postoffice money order, thus you get a quart of ten-year-old Whisky absolutely pure, for just the same price you pay for a bad compound called whisky, which is dangerous to your health. And if you buy four quarts you get it at 75 cents a quart, or we will send you one gallon of six-year-old Whisky, guaranteed absolutely pure, nicely packed in plain box, for $2.00; two gallons for $3.50; three gallons for $5.25 and you pay the express charges.

You ought to have whisky in your house; your doctor will tell you that whisky is the best and least harmful stimulant that you can use and is better than drugs. Think of the horror of a sudden attack of toothache, cramps, colic or neuralgia in the dead hours of night and no doctor near; no whisky in the house; what would a few ounces of whisky be worth to you on such an occasion? Forewarned is forearmed; "In time of peace of peace prepare for war," get some whisky, but get good, PURE whisky; send us your order.

Our positive guarantee goes with every order. If you are not pleased with the goods when you receive them we will cheerfully return your money. Isn't that fair enough? We are reliable; we will do just what we say. Experience will give you confidence in us.
